

Name: Daelle Coriolan

School: West Haven High School

Grade: 12

Congressional District: 3

Finding Integrity

FORWARD:

We live in a world where integrity no longer matters.

It is unwise to presume that

Displaying righteousness and honesty will get you far in life.

With thorough observations, it is clear that

Immorality and cheating habits,

Instead of

Dignity and self-respect, demonstrate favorable results.

I concede that

A celebrated figure such as Martin Luther King Jr., was not a man of integrity.

It is a lie that

Dr. King displayed true integrity by his selfless actions

He was a coward who demonstrated movements that only benefitted himself,

That

All his anger, blood, sweat, and tears did not channel the notable Civil Rights Movement,

That

King's integrity did not tremendously improve the lives and treatment of African Americans.

I refuse to believe that

Dr. King endured and overcame
Every mountain he could not move,
Every obstacle lunged at him.
We must remember that
In difficult situations, you should not resort to moral uprightness.
I refuse to believe that
A change can be made in this world
If everyone chose sincerity and integrity.
The world can not be repaired
Unless we do not reverse this state of mind.
Our dishonest lifestyles will eliminate all trace of good faith and integrity.

REVERSED:

Our dishonest lifestyles will eliminate all trace of good faith and integrity.
Unless we do not reverse this state of mind ,
The world can not be repaired.
If everyone chose sincerity and integrity,
A change can be made in this world.
I refuse to believe that
In difficult situations, you should not resort to moral uprightness.
We must remember that
Every obstacle lunged at him,
Every mountain he could not move,
Dr. King endured and overcame.

I refuse to believe that

King's integrity did not tremendously improve the lives and treatment of African Americans,

That

All his anger, blood, sweat, and tears did not channel the notable Civil Rights Movement

That

He was a coward who demonstrated movements that only benefitted himself.

Dr. King displayed true integrity by his selfless actions.

It is a lie that

A celebrated figure such as Martin Luther King Jr., was not a man of integrity.

I concede that

Dignity and self-respect demonstrate favorable results

Instead of

Immorality and cheating habits.

With thorough observations, it is clear that

Displaying righteousness and honesty will get you far in life.

It is unwise to presume that

We live in a world where integrity no longer matters.