Dr. King's dream was to have a free world with no racism. I read a book about his speech. He said, "I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character." His dream came true. My aspiration is to be a zookeeper. I am great with animals and it's been my dream since I was 3 years old. I want to help animals not be extinct. If people help other animals not to be extinct we can have a better life and won't have to worry about animals being extinct. I hope I can build my own zoo and people will see that animals aren't just animals, they are a friend.

What Dr. King means to me is a man who is an inspiring person and never gives up. Dr. King went to jail at least 30 times. Dr. King never gave up so that inspired me to never give up. Even though he is dead, Dr. King will always be right by our side encouraging us to never give up and keep on spreading love.
